WFC agrees to notify CWA of the creation of any non-management/supervisor job titles and, upon request, to discuss the inclusion or exclusion of these new positions in the bargaining unit. WFC agrees to notify CWA in writing of any changes in the content of existing positions, or of any change in the job status of an employee, that may reasonably be deemed to affect their inclusion in or exclusion from the bargaining unit within ten working days of any such change.

Article 2 - Non - discrimination

Women’s Foundation of California and the Union agree that they will not discriminate against any employee by reason of race, color, creed, gender (including gender identity and expression), religion, marital status, registered domestic partner status, age, national origin or ancestry, physical or mental disability, medical condition (including cancer and genetic characteristics), genetic information, sexual orientation, pregnancy, childbirth or related conditions, citizenship, military service and veteran status, arrest or conviction record, union and political affiliation and activity that does not otherwise conflict with the lawful mission and purpose of the Women’s Foundation of California, and/ or any other characteristic protected by state or federal law or local ordinance.

Article 3– Union Security

Each bargaining unit employee who is a member of the Union or who is obligated to tender to the Union amounts equal to periodic dues on the effective date of this Agreement, or who later becomes a member, and all employees entering into the bargaining unit on or after the effective date of this Agreement shall, as a condition of employment, pay or tender to the Union amounts equal to the periodic dues applicable to members for the period from such effective date or, in the case of employees entering into the bargaining unit after the effective date, on or after the thirtieth (30th) day after such entrance, whichever of these dates is later, until the termination of this Agreement.

The condition of employment specified above shall not apply during periods of formal separation from the bargaining unit by any such employee but shall reapply to such employee on the thirtieth (30th) day following the employee's return to the bargaining unit. The term "formal separation" includes transfers out of the bargaining unit, removal from the payroll of WFC, and leaves of absence of more than one (1) month in duration.

WFC may inform employees and applicants for employment of their rights and obligations under the provisions of this Article.

A. Payroll Deduction of Union Dues

WFC agrees to make deductions of proportionate amounts of monthly Union membership dues or amounts equal to Union membership dues, including assessments, authorized arrearages (a.k.a. back dues and fees), and initiation fees, hereinafter referred to collectively as "dues" from the pay of an employee, upon receipt of a dues deduction authorization card or form, signed by such employee, each payroll period, and to pay over to the Union the amounts thus deducted no later than ten (10) days after the end of the preceding month during which deductions were made. Dues deductions will begin as soon as possible after receipt of the signed authorization card or form in accordance with the WFC's normal payroll procedures.

If, for any reason, WFC fails or is unable to make the authorized deduction from pay in any payroll period, WFC will deduct the accumulated authorized deduction in an ensuing payroll period or periods, provided the employee's pay is sufficient to do so. In case the accumulated amount exceeds the number of authorized deductions, the deductions shall be made in an ensuing payroll period or periods at up to four (4) times the authorized amount until the accumulated amount is deducted.

When an employee is granted a leave of absence, any authorization for deduction of dues shall be automatically suspended. Such suspended authorizations shall be automatically resumed when an individual on leave is returned to the payroll.

When an employee who has authorized the Employer to deduct Union dues is temporarily promoted or transferred to a non-bargaining unit position for a period of one (1) full week or more, the dues deduction authorization will continue in effect until the temporary promotion or transfer exceeds four (4) full weeks. If such temporary promotion or transfer exceeds this four (4) week period, any authorization for the deduction of Union dues shall be automatically suspended. Should the temporary promotion or transfer be terminated and the employee returned to a bargaining unit position, dues deductions shall be automatically reinstated without requiring a new authorization form from the employee.

The rate or amount of the dues deduction for all members, for any job title and wage classification may be changed by the Union notifying WFC in writing of the dues change. Following formal notice from the Union, such change in dues rate or amount will be deducted from bargaining unit employees' future wage payments in accordance with WFC's regular payroll practice.

WFC and the Union shall meet for the purpose of determining what information can reasonably, easily, and without causing additional expense other than minimal expenditures, be provided by WFC to the Union for purposes of implementing this Article and how such information shall be transmitted.

The information listed above will be taken from WFC records and will be sent to the Union with the dues collected no later than ten (10) calendar days after the end of the preceding month during which deductions were made.

Article 4 – Commitment to Union Labor

WFC has a strong commitment to organized labor and the collective bargaining process. Hence, WFC will endeavor to give preference to unionized or worker cooperative contractors/vendors where feasible, provided such commitment is not otherwise in conflict with applicable federal labor law. CWA may request a meeting with the WFC Board of Directors at one of their regularly scheduled meetings and will provide in advance the purpose, desired outcomes and agenda for the meeting. Approval of such meeting requests will not be unreasonably withheld. Such request by the Union may not occur more than twice per calendar year.

Article 5 - Management Rights

The Employer shall remain vested with full and exclusive control and direction of the management and operation of the bargaining unit employees. The Employer shall continue to possess all of the rights, powers, privileges, and authority it had prior to execution of this Agreement and nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to limit the Employer in any way in the exercise of the regular and customary functions of management and the operation of its business, except as may be specifically relinquished or modified herein by an express provision of this Agreement. By way of illustration, and not by limitation, the Employer retains the sole right:

1. To direct the work force and to determine the policies and methods of operating its business, except as expressly limited by the specific provisions of this Agreement;

Probationary employee's grievances shall not proceed past Step 2 and are not eligible for Arbitration.

Article 6 - Purpose

1. It is the intent and purpose of the parties hereto that this Agreement shall promote and improve the industrial and economic relationships between the Parties and to set forth herein rates of pay, hours of work, and other conditions of employment to be observed by the Parties. In furtherance of that objective, the Parties recognize that the Employer's main objectives are to foster its mission to "invest in, train and connect community leaders to advance gender, racial, and economic justice." Accordingly, the Parties acknowledge and agree that it is vital to the Employer's success that the employees covered by this Agreement at all times deliver a premier level of service consistent with the Employer's reputation.
2. Nothing herein shall be construed as prohibiting Employer from temporarily assigning non-bargaining unit employees to perform bargaining unit work in order to meet the demands of Employer's business or from assigning bargaining unit personnel to do any task consistent with their skills and abilities. Once temporary assignments reach sixty (60) days, WFC must notify the Union and allow the Union to discuss and confer.

Article 7 - LABOR-MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

The Union and WFC will establish a Labor-Management Committee to discuss areas of concern for either party. It is not the intention of the parties to re-negotiate the terms of the CBA, but rather an opportunity for the parties to address unrelated concerns. The committee will meet no less than twice per year, unless mutually agreed upon otherwise. The meeting will not exceed two (2) hours. Each party may propose items for the meeting agenda and the meeting will be co-facilitated by the Union and WFC. All bargaining unit employees will have the opportunity to attend this meeting. The purpose of the meeting is to facilitate a discussion between the Parties. Following the Labor Management Committee Meeting, WFC will provide a written response to any pending agenda items within 20 business days. Any member of WFC management may participate in the meeting.

Article 8 – Grievance / Problem Resolution Procedure

WFC and the Union agree that timely interaction with one another on workplace issues can eliminate the cause for most grievances. Both parties will endeavor to jointly evaluate and plan proposed actions that affect employees, the Union, and the organization within the context of the parties' labor-management relationship and this CBA.

A. Request for Union Representation

At any meeting between an WFC management representative and an employee in which a formal level of discipline may be imposed, or in an investigatory interview where the employee may have a reasonable basis to expect that disciplinary action may result, a Union representative shall be present, if the employee requests such Union representation. To the extent practicable, the employee will be informed in advance by WFC management of the subject of any meeting involving any level of discipline or any investigatory interview that may result in any formal level of discipline.

B. Communication and Problem Solving

When a Union representative identifies an issue or dispute in the workplace that is related to the parties' relationship under this CBA, they will interact / communicate with the appropriate WFC manager at the earliest practicable time to help the parties resolve the problem(s) at the lowest possible level.

C. Union Presentation of Problems / Grievances

This Grievance / Problem Resolution Procedure is designed to provide a timely, efficient, and effective way of resolving workplace disputes. WFC and the Union agree that it is in their mutual interest to promptly resolve grievances at the lowest possible level. An employee may initially present their grievance to a union representative. A grievance is not at step 1, until it has been presented to an authorized representative of the WFC management team. The presentation of a formal grievance must be made in writing, and must be presented to WFC within fourteen (14) business days from the first occurrence of the action (or omission) or within fourteen (14) business days from the date of discovery. This grievance and arbitration procedure shall be the exclusive remedy for violations of any article in this CBA.

D. Grievance Procedure – Step One

The grievance will be presented to the employee's immediate supervisor or, if appropriate, the manager who took the action that the employee and Union consider to be a violation of the parties' Agreement.

Prior to the Step I Grievance meeting, the Union's written presentation of the grievance to management will include the nature of the grievance; the date of the occurrence; and the specific article / section alleged to have been violated, the name of the grievant, and the remedy sought. It shall be presented on the Union's official grievance form.

WFC will provide the Union with information and/or reasons it used or relied upon as a basis for the action (or omission) no later than ten (10) calendar days following presentation of the Step I Grievance.

WFC will hold the Step I Grievance meeting within fifteen (15) calendar days following presentation of a timely formal grievance. One (1) paid Union representative/shop steward designated by the Union may attend this meeting. WFC will inform the Union of the organization's position and rationale for its action or decision at the conclusion of the Step I Grievance meeting.

E. Grievance Procedure – Step Two

If the grievance is not resolved at Step I, it may be escalated by the Union to Step II. A Step II Grievance will be presented to the Executive Director or authorized designee, i.e., when the Executive Director is absent or when a grievance involves the Executive Director.

Step II Grievances will be processed as follows:

Prior to the Step II Grievance meeting, the Union will notify WFC in writing of its intent to escalate a Step I grievance to Step II, and the Union must do so within fourteen (14) business days of the conclusion of the Step I Grievance meeting referenced above.

Upon timely escalation of the grievance to Step II, WFC will hold the Step II Grievance meeting within fifteen (15) calendar days of receipt of the Union's written intent to escalate the grievance to Step II. One (1) paid Union representative designated by the Union may attend this meeting.

Following the Step II Grievance meeting, but no later than thirty (30) calendar days after the Step II meeting, WFC management will inform the Union in writing of WFC's Step II decision.

During the processing of grievances at Step I and Step II, and in arbitration if that becomes necessary, WFC will deal with the Union representative, not the grievant (a.k.a. the aggrieved employee).

No attorneys or other consultants may participate in the meeting. All offers to compromise presented during the meeting shall be confidential and non-admissible in any subsequent proceedings. In the event the issue is not settled satisfactorily, the Union representative may appeal the grievance to arbitration.

F. Sharing Information

During the processing of Step I and Step II grievances, and in preparation for any eventual arbitration, the parties agree to share relevant information with one another and to provide copies of documents they have relied upon or intend to rely upon. This timely exchange of information, including the exchange of documents, is intended to facilitate resolution of the dispute as well as assist the parties in their preparation at each step of the procedure.

G. Arbitration Procedures

Arbitration cases should be minimal due to effective use of the Grievance / Problem Resolution Procedures outlined here.

If the Union is not satisfied with WFC's decision at the final meeting in the grievance procedure, the Union may request that the grievance be submitted to arbitration, within fourteen (14) business days following the date of WFC's decision arising from the Step II meeting. The parties will endeavor to have the first day of the arbitration will be held within six (6) months from the date of the Union's timely written notification of its intent to arbitrate the grievance.

A panel (a.k.a. list) of arbitrators will be requested by mutual agreement of the parties for hearing arbitration cases. Upon receipt of the Union's timely written intent to arbitrate, the case will be assigned to an available arbitrator. The parties agree that they will obtain a list of seven (7) labor arbitrators from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service (FMCS), or the California State Mediation and Conciliation Service (CSMCS). The parties shall select an arbitrator by alternating striking off names from such list. The Union shall strike the first name.

If an arbitrator notifies the parties that they are unable to accept a case, the case will be referred to the next arbitrator. If the next arbitrator cannot provide a hearing date within the six (6) month time frame, the parties shall proceed through the remaining arbitrators, in order of appearance, until a hearing date can be scheduled ideally within the six (6) month timeframe of this section.

The designated representatives of WFC management and of the Union shall promptly agree on a hearing date after securing available hearing dates from the arbitrator. The parties shall schedule the hearing in accordance with customary procedures for Northern California labor arbitration cases.

Prior to the scheduled arbitration, the parties may continue to meet in an effort to resolve the grievance. The expense of witnesses for either side shall be paid for by the party producing the witnesses. The non-prevailing party shall pay for the cost of the arbitrator. Any legal fees and costs shall be paid by the party incurring them.

If the parties cannot agree on a proposed hearing date, then the Arbitrator selected by their mutual agreement shall be empowered to schedule the opening date for hearing within the six (6) month timeframe outlined above.

The Arbitrator shall only have the authority to grant awards for actual grievances and shall have no authority to add to, alter, delete, modify or change the terms or provisions of this Agreement nor have any jurisdiction over the rights of management preserved specifically in the Management Rights clause. Nor shall the Arbitrator impose any limitation or restriction on either party to this Agreement which is not expressly found in the specific written terms of this Agreement. In arbitrations involving the discipline or discharge of an employee, the Employer's burden of proof shall be to show by a preponderance of the evidence that the discipline or discharge was for just cause. The arbitrator shall not substitute his/her judgment for management as to the appropriateness of the penalty. Any back pay award rendered by an arbitrator shall be reduced by interim earnings of any sort and any period during which the recipient failed to attempt to mitigate wage loss. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding upon the parties, unless such award exceeds the limitations found in this Agreement.

H. Timelines

Employees may also take time off from work to seek medical attention for injuries caused by the crime or abuse, to obtain services from a domestic violence shelter, program or rape crisis center, to obtain psychological counseling related to the sexual assault, domestic violence or stalking, or to participate in safety planning and take other actions to increase safety from future incidents, including temporary or permanent relocation.

Employees who are victims of crime or abuse must give their supervisor reasonable advance notice that they intend to take time off for a purpose stated above unless advance notice is not feasible. In the event of an unscheduled absence, the employee must, within a reasonable time after the absence, provide WFC with appropriate documentation certifying the need for the absence such as:

- documentation from a licensed medical professional, domestic violence counselor, sexual assault counselor, victim advocate, licensed health care provider, or counselor that the employee was undergoing treatment or receiving services for physical or mental injuries or abuse resulting in victimization from the crime or abuse;
- a court order protecting or separating the employee from the perpetrator of the crime or abuse, or other evidence from the court or prosecuting attorney that the employee has appeared in court;
- any other form of documentation that reasonably verifies that the crime or abuse occurred, including but not limited to, a written statement signed by the employee, or an individual acting on the employee's behalf, certifying that the absence is for a purpose authorized under the leave; or
- a police report indicating that the employee was a victim.

Subject to state and federal laws, leave under the above circumstances, is unpaid except that affected employees may use accrued and available vacation and/or sick pay. The total amount of unpaid leave that may be taken for medical treatment, counseling, safety planning or other support services resulting from sexual assault, domestic violence or stalking, cannot exceed 12 weeks in a 12-month period, and is not in addition to unpaid leave allowed under the California Family Rights Act.

Article 31 – Military Leave

Women's Foundation California provides military leaves of absence to employees who serve in the uniformed services as required by the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act of 1994 and applicable state law. Leave is available for active duty, active duty for training, initial active duty for training, inactive duty training, full-time National Guard duty and for examinations to determine fitness for any such duty.

Employees are also eligible for up to 12 weeks of military leave because of "any qualifying exigency" arising out of the fact that the spouse, son, daughter, or parent of the employee is on active duty, or have been notified of an impending call to active-duty status, in support of a contingency operation.

An employee who is the spouse, son, daughter, parent or next of kin of a covered service member who is recovering from a serious illness or injury sustained in the line of duty on active duty is entitled to up to 26 weeks of leave in a single 12-month period to care for a service member.

Subject to state and Federal laws, WFC does not provide salary during military leaves.

Total military leave time taken may not exceed five years during employment, except in special circumstances.

Advance notice of leave is required. Please inform your supervisor of anticipated military leave time as far in advance as possible. Accrued vacation will be paid during military leave at your request and health plan coverage continuance can be arranged for up to 18 months during military leave if required premium payments are made by you.

As with other leaves of absence, failure to return to work or to reapply within applicable time limits may result in termination of employment.

Article 32 – Bereavement Leave

In the unfortunate event of a death in the immediate family, a leave of absence of up to five (5) days with pay is available to regular full-time and part-time employees for a maximum of three incidents per calendar year.

For this purpose, immediate family is defined as:

- Spouse
- Domestic Partner
- Child, stepchild
- Parents (including in-laws), stepparents
- Siblings, stepsiblings
- Grandparents
- Grandchildren

Employees should make their supervisor aware of their situation. You may request time off for bereavement leave in the event of the death of another significant person in your life, even if the person is not an immediate family member.

Article 33 – Partial Leave for Dependent Care

In support of your commitments and obligations to dependent family members, WFC allows you to arrange for a reduction in your scheduled work hours for up to 4 months, with up to a maximum schedule reduction of 50% and a commensurate reduction in your salary. You should make arrangements with your supervisor with as much advance notice as possible of your need for such an arrangement. Extensions beyond four months will be considered by the CEO, if you submit a request in writing to your supervisor at least one month in advance of the scheduled end of the reduction. There may be changes to your job during and beyond your adjusted schedule, in order to ensure the smooth operation of WFC.

Article 34 – Personal Leave

Any leaves other than those described above are granted only at WFC's discretion and are without pay and must be requested in writing. Under all but the most extraordinary circumstances, these leaves are not granted in the first 26 weeks of employment.

The leave is either unconditional or conditional:

Unconditional: The employee is entitled to the same job upon return. If that job has been discontinued, they are entitled to a comparable job. If none is available, separation pay is calculated using the job elimination formulas.

Conditional: There is no guarantee of any job on the employee's return. Every effort will be made to place the employee in a suitable job on return, but if none is available, the employee will be considered to have resigned and will receive no separation pay.

Article 35 – Sabbatical Leave

To encourage employees to periodically step back from the day-to-day work, we offer up to four months of sabbatical leave to eligible employees. Up to two months of the sabbatical is paid leave and the remaining two months can be taken by using vacation time or unpaid leave.

To be eligible for sabbatical leave, you must complete 6 years of continuous fulltime employment (or the equivalent), have an excellent overall job performance rating as evidenced by the two most recent evaluations at the time the leave is requested, and have made a substantial contribution to WFC.

Sabbatical leave requires the approval of the CEO and must be arranged at least three months in advance, starting with the employee's application for sabbatical through the employee's supervisor. It is expected that employees will return to work at WFC at the end of the sabbatical leave and complete at least one year of employment at WFC after sabbatical leave. Employees returning from sabbatical leave will be reinstated to the same or a substantially similar position. Benefits continue to accrue during sabbatical leave, and WFC will maintain your group health benefits on the same terms and conditions as if you had not taken leave. Eligible employees may apply for sabbatical leave once every six (6) years.

The parties acknowledge that during the negotiations which resulted in this Agreement, each had the unlimited right and opportunity to make demands and proposals with respect to any subject or matter not removed by law from the area of collective bargaining, and that the understanding and agreement arrived at by the parties after lengthy discussions and exercise of those rights and opportunities are set forth in this Agreement. The provisions of this Agreement constitute the entire Agreement between the Employer and the Union and may be changed only in accordance with the provisions set forth herein, or by mutual agreement of the parties reduced to writing and signed by them.
3. The Employer and the Union for the life of this Agreement, voluntarily and unqualifiedly, waive the right and each agrees that the other shall not be obligated to bargain collectively with respect to any subject or matter referred to or covered in this Agreement, or with respect to any subject or matter not specifically referred to or covered by this Agreement even though the subject or matter may not have been within the knowledge or contemplation of either or both of the parties at the time they negotiated or signed this Agreement.
4. No one or more provisions of this Agreement may be interpreted to deny to the Employer the right to do anything not forbidden by the Agreement. Employer policies and practices may not be subject to the grievance procedure or any other form of redress unless specifically addressed herein. No other Employer benefits or obligations arising out of prior practice shall be binding upon the Employer.
